

Ellore & Eastern Orangeburg County History

Presented by Dr. Gene Atkinson

Tuesday, May 2, 2023, 7:00 pm at the Museum

Dr. Atkinson is a retired Orangeburg dentist and local historian. He has been recognized for his civic endeavors, his historical collections, and his contributions to dentistry. His interest in the history of his hometown of Orangeburg, South Carolina, has led to five books on its history, three of which have been pictorial histories. Through the years Dr. Atkinson has been able to collect several thousand old pictures from Orangeburg's past. For a number of years Dr. Atkinson has served as the president of the Orangeburg County Historical Society, where he has helped expand their collections. Additionally he has presented numerous informative slide shows on Orangeburg's history to many local groups. He is married to the former Colleen Casey, and they have three daughters: Liz, Dottie, and Katie.

There is no charge for the program, but reservations are required.

Call 803-897-2225

Above are two special photos provided to the museum by Dr. Atkinson.