Elloree Trials - Saturday, March 23, 2024

The Elloree Trials, an annual horse racing event that's been a cornerstone of Elloree, SC for nearly 6 decades, is making a triumphant return on March 23, 2024. Howard Shuler, President of the newly formed Elloree Palmetto Jockey Club, stated, "The support we've seen from not just Elloree, but from people across South Carolina and beyond has been truly moving. It's a testament to the impact the Trials has had over the years. This year's Elloree Trials will be a truly special occasion, not just for the horse racing community but for everyone who cherishes the strength and character of small-town America. We're looking forward to making memories that will last a lifetime."

Come Mosaic with Marty

Tuesday, April 23, 2024, 6:00 p.m.

At the Ulmer Farm, 497 Veneer St., Elloree

I grew up "Marty Ulmer" in Elloree, and I am so excited to be involved with the museum. I live in Florence, but Elloree will always be "the home I love". Mosaic is a style of art that uses small pieces of materials (glass, stone, etc.) to create a picture or design. For this workshop we will decorate a flower pot using broken china. This is called Picassiette, which loosely translated means "plate stealer" or "scavenger". I'll tell you where that originated when we get together. All materials, plus pizza, and soft drinks will be provided. Join me for a fun creative experience!

Registration Cost: $25.00

Call the Museum or mail your check to Elloree Heritage Museum, PO Box 54, Elloree, SC 29047
